

FRECKLETON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

NEWSLETTER FOR JULY 2008

This evening we will be jaunting off to - who knows where! As we will be on the coach we will not be having the usual business part of our meeting, so I have listed all the future activities on this newsletter.

Denman's Diamond - a celebration of 60 years. If you would like to visit Denman College in Oxfordshire the LFWI have organised a trip on Tuesday 23rd September. The cost will be £45.00 and Carole has more information. The closing date is 26th August.

Autumn Dabble Days at Alston Hall, Wednesday 8th to Friday 10th October. A wide variety of subjects will be covered with a choice from Cookery (the Best of Italy); Singing for Fun; Encaustic Art; Excursion to a local farm shop; Components of a Healthy Life; Light-hearted reminiscences of a GP; Dancing the Night Away.

Welcome to Myerscough Day. Thursday 2nd October, 10.00 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Myerscough College. Cost £8.00 per person which will include a chance to see all the facilities at the college in action and walk around the grounds. There will be a light lunch and visit to the plant centre. Closing date Monday 22nd September.

Garden Design and Plants: Past and Present. Monday 8th September, 7.30 p.m. at Brindle Village Hall. £11.50 per person. This will include a two course supper and a talk by Bill Blackledge (The BBC Radio Lancashire gardening expert). Closing date Monday 11th August.

Would like to be our delegate to the Autumn Council Meeting & Last Night of the Proms on Thursday 9th October at The King George's Hall, Blackburn at 7.30 p.m. to 10 p.m.? There will be a free ticket for our delegate but it is possible to order visitor's tickets at £5.00 each. I hope you will consider this, it is always a good meeting. The closing date is Friday 12th September and if you are interested please ask Carole for further information.

On Tuesday 16th or Wednesday 17th September there will be walks from Brindle village.

If any of these activities catch your eye and you would like to know more, Carole has all the details.

Now let's settle down and enjoy our 2008 Mystery Trip!
