

Freckleton Annual Parish Council Assembly. (Tuesday the 10th of April, starting at 7.00pm)

What is it?

The Annual Parish Assembly is when the current years retiring Chairman makes a report/statement on the events of the last 12 months to the electors in the Parish of Freckleton.

Also included on the agenda are:-

1. Financial statement - unaudited. - to be approved.
2. A report by the Chairman of Finance.
3. Followed by questions from the Electors of the Parish of Freckleton.

Why hold an annual Assembly?

It is part of the mandatory democratic process whereby the Parish Council demonstrates its responsibility to the electors.

Who is entitled to attend?

Every elector in the Parish of Freckleton is entitled to attend.

What is in it for me?

It is your opportunity to take the Parish Council to task, raise your concerns or ask for specific actions to be considered during the forthcoming year.

When is it held?

It is held in the Village Hall. This year 2007, it will be held on Tuesday the 10th of April, starting at 7.00pm.

And After?

Normally tea and biscuits are served after the event.

You will have the opportunity for an informal talk with one or more of your local Ward Parish Councillors. In the case of Freckleton Parish Council, three of the Parish Councillors are also Fylde Borough Councillors, so Fylde Borough Council matters may also be aired.

The normal monthly Parish Council meeting follows the Annual Assembly, and you are invited to stay and witness the democratic process via the Parish Council in action.
