"Flushed Away"

From Aardman Features and DreamWorks Animation, the team behind the Oscar®-winning hits "Wallace & Gromit: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit" and "Shrek," comes the computer-animated comedy Flushed Away, which tells the story of a pampered pet mouse who is flushed down the toilet from his penthouse apartment in Kensington beneath the streets of London, where he has to learn a whole new way of life.

Flushed Away stars the voices of Hugh Jackman (the "X-Men" film franchise) as Roddy; Kate Winslet ("Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind," "Titanic," "Sense and Sensibility") as Rita; Ian McKellen ("The Lord of the Rings: The Fellowship of the Ring,") as the Toad; Andy Serkis ("King Kong," "The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King") and Bill Nighy ("Love Actually") as Spike and Whitey; Shane Richie ("Eastenders") as Sid; and Jean Reno ("The Da Vinci Code") as Le Frog.
